

THE TRIAL
of HIPPOCRATES

Dear NHM Supporter,

The NHM Trial Series is a signature event for the National Hellenic Museum (NHM). We are thrilled to once again present the prominent attorneys, Robert Clifford, Patrick Collins, Patrick Fitzgerald, and Dan Webb. The panel of lawyers will be joined again by trial attorneys, Christina Fakis Adair and Tinos Diamantatos. I am writing in the hope that you will consider sponsoring the latest in the NHM Trial Series. Now announcing: The NHM Trial of Hippocrates when the Museum asks: Did Hippocrates violate his own Oath?

On February 20, 2019, the NHM presents the next Trial at the Harris Theater for Music and Dance in Millennium Park. Our nationally renowned Judges, Charles P. Kocoras and William J. Bauer, will return and will be joined on the bench by U.S. District Judge Sharon Johnson Coleman and Cook County Circuit Judge Anna H. Demacopoulos.

On behalf of our Chairman, John P. Calamos, Sr., and our Board of Trustees, we ask that you support this enriching event with a sponsorship. We will be honored to recognize your sponsorship according to the giving level with its corresponding benefits and recognition. The accompanying packet tells you giving levels, benefits and how to give. Donors at the Friend's Circle level and above will be featured in the DVD we are producing of The NHM Trial of Hippocrates. The NHM Trial of Antigone (2016) and The NHM Trial of Parthenon Marbles (2017) were shown on public television. Antigone was nominated for a Midwest regional Emmy.

Previous Trials attracted over 500 participants, and The NHM Trial of the Hippocrates is creating the same excitement. Hippocrates, the father of medicine, was called to the bedside of the dying King of Thebes. The physician saw immediately that nothing could cure this illness. Nonetheless, the King insisted that Hippocrates treat him and offered gold and gifts in return. Hippocrates agreed. Despite these treatments, the King grew worse and died. Hippocrates was arrested and brought before the King's son and heir. Hippocrates had sworn to "help the sick but never with a view to injury and wrong-doing." The National Hellenic Museum asks: Did Hippocrates violate his own Oath?

This event advances the mission of National Hellenic Museum and casts a positive light on all our participants: lawyers exercise their skills in an enjoyable and intellectually rigorous setting; judges hand down thoughtful opinions connecting the issues raised in ancient times to contemporary concerns; and our sponsors enjoy being associated with a unique and prestigious event.

Thank you for your kind consideration of a sponsorship. Please mark your selection and contact information on the enclosed form and return it to us by January 30, 2019. For questions, feel free to contact me directly at 312-876-6664 or Helene Genetos at the Museum, at 312-655-1234 ext. 28, or by email, hgenetos@hellenicmuseum.org.

Sincerely,

Konstantinos Armiros
